

Another Little Love Song

(written 'under pressure' at the Lake School Song Writing workshop, Jan 2008)
(Key D – capo 2)

- C F
1. Well I've run out of time to write down this song
- C D G
The tune's a bit pathetic, and the words are all wrong,
F C
But it's hard getting feelings to fall into line,
D G
Even harder when words won't fall into rhyme,
FG C
But I love you.
2. I knew when I held you that very first day,
You'd make my life special in so many ways,
You cried and you sobbed and I held you so tight,
And rocked you to sleep on that very first night,
And I, I just love you.
3. You know it's not easy writing songs on demand,
The words are elusive, they don't come to my hand,
But a smile on your face, and your twinkling eye,
Again and again, they remind me of why,
I still love you.
4. Well you're a pain in the ass, you're an angel divine,
And you eat like a horse, and keep sipping my wine,
But for making me proud, mate, you're second to none,
Oliver, it's just great having you as my son,
And I'll always love you.
5. So I've given it a crack, and I hope you don't mind,
If it sounds a bit dumb, or a bit unrefined,
A bit stupid, or maudlin, or sung the wrong way,
Put it down to an old bloke who's just trying to say,
I love you
Yes, I love you.
